DAC Theology

It's Funny... No matter what I do... I will never seem to be good enough for this world. But, as long as I understand True Love and Forgiveness... I'll always be good enough for God. -David Allen Collinsworth

A Commitment should be made by choice and not by mandate... Social Justice will never be able to adequately replace teaching Social Responsibility to our communities. -David Allen Collinsworth

"The funny thing about being funny is... you're only funny if someone else thinks that you're funny... but in order to be funny... you must first think that you're funny before anyone else can think that you're funny. "

-David Allen Collinsworth

"I don't believe in accidents... I believe in Cause and Effect... So, you can understand why I don't believe that the universe is an accident, because in order for us to see the extreme Effects of the wonders of life in our universe today... then there must have been a Cause for life at the beginning of our universe ."

-David Allen Collinsworth

"Be cool, Christians... People who don't believe in God... just haven't met him yet... If you just give them time... they will meet God eventually... Who knows... maybe, they'll meet God through you..." - David Allen Collinsworth
